

NEW PARK SYSTEM SURROUNDING CITY IS URGED BY TAFT President Makes Vigorous Speech Declaring for Added Beauty of City.

The national campaign of publicity in behalf of the development of the outlying park system of the District, commenced yesterday when President Taft and Congressmen and Senators joined in pointing out its necessity, will now be urged forward until the whole country is acquainted with the park plan, according to Arthur C. Moore, chairman of the special park commission committee of the Board of Trade today.

The Board of Trade's campaign for early execution of the park commission's plan for a great system of outlying parks and parkways surrounding the city, had its auspicious beginning yesterday's meeting at the New Willard. The south ball room of the hotel was filled with members of the Congressional Club, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and prominent residents of this city.

Urged by President Taft, President Taft made one of the most vigorous speeches yet heard here in behalf of the park system, urging the policy of delaying acquisition of the lands.

"I have been long enough in Washington," he said, "to have a personal feeling of pride in the city as a citizen. I think I can separate that feeling altogether from the feeling of pride that I have as a citizen of the United States. Now we have here a lot of property that can be bought—not at reasonable prices and not at reasonable prices as we could ten years ago have bought it when we ought to have bought it—now we can buy it now at considerably less than we shall have to buy it ten, fifteen or twenty years from now, when we shall be unable to do so. It is a sensible system of spending the money as rapidly as we can spend it economically, to make the city what it ought to be."

Martine Advocates System. Senator Martine of New Jersey followed the President and made an eloquent plea in behalf of the park system.

Senator Pomerehne of Ohio followed the New Jersey Senator, and President Taft remained until the conclusion of the speech, though he had been delayed the reception at the White House to the Chamber of Commerce delegates.

Congressman Murray of Massachusetts told of the park system of Boston and the results of the system in obtaining it. Congressman J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia regretted that Philadelphia had not been helped by William Penn on the plan of Washington, and Commissioner Judson described the park plan from his map. Congressman Rothel of Pennsylvania, who had expected to be present, was kept away by a severe cold.

LOSS IS $20,000 IN GEORGETOWN FIRE

G. W. Cissel Hay and Straw Warehouse and Contents Almost Destroyed.

Damage estimated today at $20,000 was done by fire last evening to the hay and straw warehouse of the George W. Cissel Company at Thirty-first and E streets, Georgetown.

The origin of the fire has not been determined, as there was no one working in that section of the building at the time. E. S. Irish, one of the salesmen, discovered the flames and sounded the alarm. By the time the fire company arrived, the blaze had gained such headway that a second alarm was sounded. The fire proved stubborn because of the large quantities of hay and straw in the structure.

Tired of Strike Threats, He Discharges Waiters

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Declaring himself tired of the prolonged threats of strike and the demands of the union waiters, and acting in the interests of the other hotel proprietors by forcing the issue, Manager Regan, of the Hotel Knickerbocker, called his entire dining room force before him early today and discharged them in a body.

There had been threats of a strike all during the evening, but Regan forestalled the men by asking them to wait until 1 o'clock and then assemble before him in the main dining room. Regan's action is believed to have followed a conference of hotel men, at which it was decided to force the union into the open and either bring on the general strike that has been threatened for two weeks or take all the fight out of the men.

Bill Bars Treating.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 23.—Representative Dunn has introduced a bill in the legislature penalizing the holder of a liquor license for allowing "treating" in his establishment.

Doubting Mrs. Casey.

Mrs. Casey (setting up in bed)—Molke, did you put out the cat?
Mr. Casey—Oh, did.
Mrs. Casey—Oh, don't believe it!
Mr. Casey—Well, if you think O'm a liar, get up and put 'er out yourself.

Careless Poet.

Dealer—Well, sir, of course you must take the 'em or leave 'em. There's a 'em with all 'is imperfections on 'is head, 'em the poet says.
Prospective customer—Ah, your friend the poet can't have looked at 'is legs!

Fresh Salmon.

"Are you sure this salmon is quite fresh?"
"Fresh! Lor' bless yer, mum, I've just 'ad to cut it up to keep it from jumpin' at the dish."
